

REQUEST FOR PROPOSAL:

Double Decker Arts Festival 2026 Official Festival Merchandiser

Double Decker Arts Festival (DDAF) seeks qualified merchandisers to produce, sell, distribute, promote and staff festival merchandise during the Double Decker Arts Festival. DDAF requires a 40/60 split of gross sales (40% to DDAF and 60% to merchant) and the approval of all merchandise sold.

Scope of Work:

- Merchandiser is responsible for purchasing, producing and storing t-shirts (and other merchandise) referenced in the attached lists including hats, posters and any other merchandise the merchandiser chooses and DDAF approves.
- All merchandise sold must be licensed and approved by Double Decker Arts Festival.
- The Double Decker Arts Festival retains the first right of refusal for all designs created by the merchandiser to be included in the festival's merchandise lineup.
- For any Double Decker merchandise created by the merchandiser that is not included in the festival lineup, Double Decker Arts Festival will receive 10% of gross sales of those items.
- Merchandiser will staff the merchandise tent during the 2026 Double Decker Arts Festival (April 24 & 25, 2026)
- Facilitate and fulfill online sales at least forty-five (45) days prior to the festival dates and until supplies are exhausted
- Market and promote merchandise on social media and through mailing lists already owned by the merchandiser
- Merchandiser will send payment to Double Decker Arts Festival by the 15th of the following month with detailed sales summary until supplies are exhausted

Double Decker will need the following merchandise at cost for festival workers:

- Artwork t-shirts: Quantity not to exceed 200; sizes S – 5XL; exact sizes and quantities to be determined during contract negotiations
- Generic festival t-shirts: Quantity not to exceed 60; sizes S – 3XL; exact sizes and quantities to be determined during contract negotiations
- Visit Oxford Staff t-shirts: Quantity not to exceed 60; sizes S – 2XL; exact sizes and quantities to be determined during contract negotiations
- Official Festival Poster: Quantity of 100 18x24 posters prior to the festival and the ability to purchase remaining unsold posters at cost after the festival
- Additional merchandise: Quantities and sizes to be determined during contract negotiations (e.g. sweatshirts, hats, koozies, cups, pins etc.)

Complete Official Merchandise proposal should include:

- Sales execution plan outlining requirements listed above and percentage split offered to Double Decker Arts Festival of gross sales
- Intended sales price of all merchandise pieces
- Income grid to show expected sales if all merchandise is sold and projected revenue due to Double Decker Arts Festival

Proposals are due by noon on Friday, December 19, 2025 and emailed to:
kinney@visitoxfordms.com and leeann@visitoxfordms.com.
